

Introduction

The short term graduate plan is for recently graduated International students, who are no longer eligible to participate in a student plan and not yet covered by an employer sponsored plan. Others who cannot satisfy the eligibility under the student international plans can also apply. Refer to the Policy Brochure for details.

Who Can Enroll?

Recently graduated international students under the age of 59, who are no longer eligible under the student insurance, and not yet covered by an employer sponsored plan. Current students who are not eligible for an AMA student plan because of credit hour requirements or other requirements that make them not eligible may also enroll in the plan. Spouses and dependent children may also apply.

How Much Does the Plan Cost?

The premium is based on your age, deductible selected, and the period of coverage.

How does it Pay?

The insurance pays medical expenses resulting from Sickness or Injury to a maximum of $250,000. It also covers Repatriation and Medical Evacuation up to $25,000. Co-payments differ when service is received from In-Network or Out-of-Network. Please read the policy brochure for more detailed benefit information.

How to Enroll?

Visit www.amastudentplans.com and click on Insurance Plans. Choose “More Info” under International Student Plans. Select the Plan you wish to enroll in by clicking on it. Click on the “Enroll Now” option to enroll in the plan by credit card. When enrollment has been processed, you will receive, via email, an ID card, PPO network card, Proof of Insurance, instructions for finding participating providers and instructions to file a claim.

How to Use the Insurance?

In the event of Sickness or Injury, please contact NHBC for a referral to a Network Provider: 1-8888-621-7900 Pin # AMA411 or access via internet (<http://providers.nhbc.com>) enter AMA411 and click to “Go To Directories”.

In the event of a medical emergency (see definition of Emergency in the Brochure) a Network Provider is not required. Go to the nearest hospital to seek treatment. When visiting a doctor or hospital, complete the personal information portion of the claim form, give the claim form and a copy of your ID card to the doctor or hospital; the doctor or hospital will send the bills directly to the Claim Division, or you may pay the doctor or the hospital first, and mail the medical bills along with the claim form to the Claim Division for reimbursement:

MCA ADMINISTRATORS, Inc
P.O. Box 6540
Harrisburg, Pa 17112

You may contact the Clams Division at 1-800-427-9308 to check the status of your claim(s)
This is for descriptive purposes only, please refer to the Policy Brochure for details.

Eligibility

Each person under age 59, who is a member of the Classes of persons defined below is eligible to be insured by this Policy

Insured

International student (or former International student) who was previously insured under a College Medical Plan (such as AMA Student and Scholar Medical Insurance Plan) prior to applying for this plan. Students who were no longer eligible for the College Medical Plan because of graduation or currently part time students who do not qualify for any student plan may apply. Spouses and dependent children under age 20 (but not less than 30 days old) are also eligible.

Dependent

A Dependent of the Insured who: 1) is the legal Spouse (resident with the Insured), and unmarried children under twenty years of age who are not self-supporting and reside with the Insured; or 2) becomes a Dependent of the Insured after the effective date of the Insured's coverage by reason of: a) marriage; or b) birth; or c) legal adoption.

Dependent eligibility expires concurrently with that of the Insured.

Enrollment

Spouse and minor children may only be enrolled on the date the Student/Scholar is enrolled or within one month of birth, adoption, marriage or arrival in the U.S.A., and they may only enroll if the Student/Scholar is enrolled. A spouse, newborn, or adopted dependent who attains such status during the Insured's period of coverage may become insured by payment of the appropriate premium within 31 days of attaining such status. Except as otherwise provided in this Enrollment provision, or as may be stated by endorsement to this policy, enrollment in this insurance program is limited to the dates stipulated in the Covered Schedule

Persons Who Are Not Eligible

United States Citizens, Persons currently pregnant; Persons over age 59; New born children under 30 days old; and persons with diseases or conditions stated on the enrollment form.

Effective Time and Date of Coverage

Coverage for an Insured individual, who makes a premium payment in accordance with the Enrollment provisions stated herein, shall become effective on the latter of:

1) 12:01 a.m., Standard Time on the Policy effective Date; or
2) 12:01 a.m., Standard Time on the date the Insured indicates on the Enrollment Form; or
3) 12:01 a.m.' Standard Time on the day after the date the Policyholder, Company, Agent or Administrator receives the premium. Coverage will always become effective at the Time specified on the Policy Schedule and on the date determined within this provision. In no event may a person be insured for a period of more than 12 months. The Plan is audited ever six (6) months.

Coverage is available by the month and for up to 6 months. Additional coverage can be purchased, however, the total number of months covered shall not exceed twelve (12) months. (Any additional coverage purchased shall not be considered continuous of existing coverage, but an unrelated, new coverage.)

Important: There is NO continuous coverage between plans. This means that any condition, which may have manifested itself during one enrollment period, will be treated as Pre-existing Condition for subsequent enrollment periods.

Termination Date of Coverage

Coverage under this policy with respect to the Insured shall terminate on the earlier of the following: 1) the last day of the period for which premium has been paid; or 2) on the date you cease to be eligible for the insurance; or 3) the time and date the Policy terminates as set forth in the Policy Schedule; or 4) the time and date you become eligible under a plan which provides medical expenses.*

*“Plan Providing Medical Expenses” means any policy, contract or other arrangement for benefits or services for medical or dental care or treatment provided by: 1) group insurance (whether on an insured or self-funded basis); 2) hospital or medical service organizations on a group basis; 3) Health Maintenance Organizations provided on a group basis; 4) group labor management trusted plan; 5) union welfare plans on a group basis; 6) employer organization plans on a group basis; 7) group employee benefit organization plans; 8) professional association plans on a group basis; or 9) any other group employee welfare benefit plan as defined in the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended.

A student who has been continuously insured with the Company for 3 months or more, has the option to purchase coverage after graduation for a period of three (3) months.

Coverage under this policy with respect to any dependent shall terminate on the earliest of: 1) the last day of the period for which premium has been paid; or 2) the time and date the Policy terminates as set forth in the Policy Schedule; or 3) the time and date the Insured's insurance terminates.

Refund Procedure

No refunds are allowed unless the Insured becomes ineligible for coverage. All refund requests must be in writing with documentation. If a claim has been filed, no refund will be made, whether a benefit has been paid or not. All approved refunds will be made on a pro-rata basis rounded to the month, less a processing fee.

Definitions

“Injury” means accidental bodily injury which is the sole cause of the loss and is sustained while the Policy is in force as to the Insured Person whose injury is the basis of the claim

“Sickness” means illness or disease resulting in loss covered by the policy which is the sole cause of the loss and first manifest itself while the policy is in force as to the Insured Person whose sickness is the basis of the claim
“Pre-existing condition” means an illness or disease for which treatment was recommended or received three (3) years prior to the Insured's effective date.

Preferred Provider Organization

Benefits as describe within are based upon and will be limited to an incurred loss for medical treatment received from a physician or hospital approved through a participating Preferred Provider Organization (PPO). Benefits will be reduced to 70% of covered medical expenses shown within the Benefits Schedule for medical treatment or services received from a non-participating physician or hospital.*

For referral to a participating physician or hospital, please call NHBC at 1-888-621-7900 or access via internet (<http://providers.nhbc.com>), enter AMA411 and click “Go to Directories.”

*If treatment is received where a PPO provider is not available within 35 miles of the Insured's residence, or in case of emergency, benefits will be reduced. Emergency Condition means an accident, injury or sudden onset of a medical condition which first manifests itself while the insured is covered under the policy. Such a condition is evidenced by the sudden appearance of acute symptoms of severity which would cause a reasonable person to expect a serious impairment or dysfunction of a bodily part or organ.

Company's Right of Recovery

Payments made by the Company which exceed the Covered Medical Expenses (after allowance for Deductibles and coinsurance) payable hereunder shall be recoverable by the Company from or among any persons, firms, corporations, or any insurance organization to or for whom such payments were made for any covered Injury or Sickness.
